Commissioners Swanson TERRITORIAL LEADERS

Commissioners Barry C. & E. Sue Swanson

In February 2013, Commissioner Barry C. Swanson was appointed Territorial Commander and Commissioner E. Sue Swanson Territorial President of Women's Ministries. Commissioner Barry Swanson is the administrative and ecclesiastical leader of The Salvation Army in 10 states plus Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, with headquarters in West Nyack, N.Y. The territory includes more than 1,600 active and retired officers, 369 corps, and more than 1,000 other centers.

Commissioner Swanson, a native of Chicago, attended Northern Illinois University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing. In 1975, he married Sue Miller and they entered the College for Officer Training in 1976, and were commissioned as officers in 1978. Lieutenants Barry and Sue were appointed to corps work in Michigan and served for 12 years.

In 1990, Commissioner Barry attended the Army's International College for Officers (ICO) in London, England. In 2000, Commissioner Sue had a similar opportunity to grow in her faith with other officers at ICO. Both testify to the truly enriching experience that being a delegate at the ICO affords.

In June 1990, the Captains Swanson were appointed to the Heartland Divisional Headquarters in the Central Territory, followed by another corps appointment prior to becoming the divisional leaders in 1995, with the rank of major.

In July 1999, they were appointed to Territorial Headquarters in Chicago, with the rank of Lt. colonel. In 2001, Lt. Colonel Sue became the territorial candidates secretary. In July 2006, the Swansons were appointed to National Headquarters as national chief secretary and as national secretary for Women's Ministries.

A year later and promoted to the rank of commissioner, the Swansons were appointed to International Headquarters (IHQ) in London, where Commissioner Barry became the International Secretary for the Americas and Caribbean Zone, while Commissioner Sue Swanson was appointed as Zonal Secretary for Women's Ministries. Just one year later, in October 2008, Commissioners Swanson returned to the USA to assume responsibilities as Territorial Leaders of the USA Central Territory. In addition to being appointed Territorial President of Women's Ministries, Commissioner Sue was given the role of Territorial Ambassador for Prayer.

In May 2010 the Commissioners returned to IHQ as Chief of the Staff and World President of Women's Ministries, respectively. As Chief, Commissioner Barry Swanson was second-in-command of the worldwide Salvation Army and chief administrative officer for The Salvation Army's IHQ.

The Swansons are parents to four adult children: Joan Kurtz, married to Patrick; Will and Chrissy Swanson, who have two daughters, Luella and Martha, and a son, Barry; Michael, married to Leah; and Andrea Strand, married to Colin, who have twin boys, Walter and Harvey.

Colonels Munn SPECIAL GUESTS

Colonel Janet Munn

Colonel Janet Munn is the Principal of the College for Officer Training (CFOT) in Suffern, New York. An officer for 28 years, she has served globally in leadership and in urban and suburban corps.

Colonel Munn desires to equip a generation of leaders who are devoted to Jesus Christ, to prayer, to holiness, and to reaching the world.

Colonel Munn has given many summers to camping ministry for underprivileged youth. Globally, she calls people to 24/7 prayer, to corporate prayer and fasting, and to accountability and discipleship in community through small groups.

Janet is the daughter of a Nazarene pastor and a disciple-making mother; the wife of Colonel Richard Munn, and the mother of two young adults, Nealsen and Olivia (now a lieutenant). Colonel Janet Munn has recently completed her Doctor of Ministry degree from Ashland Theological Seminary.

Colonel Richard J. Munn

Colonel Richard Munn is a 4th-generation Salvationist. Born in London, England, he spent his childhood in the Congo where his parents were missionaries.

He graduated from St. Luke's College, Exeter, with a Bachelor Degree in education. As a student, he worked at the Army's Camp Wonderland in Sharon, Mass., serving under-privileged children. In the process, God effected in him a new birth in Christ and a vision for ministry. He also met Janet. They married in 1980.

Richard Munn graduated from Asbury Theological Seminary with a Masters in Divinity degree in 1985. Two years later, he was commissioned as an officer.

Following corps work in Camden, N.J. and youth ministry in Mass., the Munns served as corps officers in Manchester, Conn., divisional leaders in Northern New England, and as Secretary for Program (Richard) and as the Ambassador for Prayer and Spiritual Formation (Janet). Richard also served as the Executive Officer for the New York Staff Band.

In July 2008, Richard and Janet became Principal and Associate Principal for the International College for Officers (ICO) and Centre for Spiritual Life Development in Sydenham, London, England. In May 2004, he received a Doctor of Ministry Degree from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary.

GREATER NEW YORK

Youth Band

The Greater New York Youth Band was formed in 1960 and has ministered all across the United States and around the world including

Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, Holland, Spain and Italy. The GNY Youth Band is a wonderful tradition that has provided musical training and spiritual enrichment for hundreds of young musicians. Most of the members are Salvationists in either high school or college with a few who are independently employed.

The group has been the training ground for notable musicians including former principal trumpet of the New York Philharmonic, Philip Smith and former staff arranger for the US Marine Band, Stephen Bulla.

The band has been conducted by Derek Smith and Terry Camsey and at present is conducted by Gordon Ward and Christopher Ward.

Youth Chorus

The Greater New York Youth Chorus was formed in just 2005 with 26 singers. In its second season the numbers increased to 39 singers. The group has travelled alongside the GNY Youth Band all over the USA and to Canada, Argentina, Spain and Italy.

The chorus is conducted by Gavin Whitehouse with Lily Finikin as the piano accompanist.

Creative Arts

The Greater New York Creative Arts forces consist of the Divisional Dance Team, under the leadership of Judith Nicolas and Nicole Alvarez; the Divisional Timbrels Brigade, under the leadership of Romina Morton and Annabel Concha; and the Divisional D'Art Team, under the leadership of Pablo Fernandez. The GNY Creative Arts groups are composed of 30 young people from around the division, whose sole purpose is spreading the Gospel and glorifying God through the many different art forms.

GOSPEL TRAIN BIG BAND

Wm. Thomas 'Tom' Walker was born to Salvation Army parents in Columbus, Mississippi and his earliest musical training took place in Salvation Army corps and camping programs. After graduating Murphy High School in Mobile, Alabama, Tom earned degrees in trombone performance from the University of Southern Mississippi, the University of North Texas and his doctorate from the University of Northern Colorado.

Over the last thirty years Tom has served on university music faculties in Florida, Oklahoma and Missouri. He spent 23 years at Oklahoma State University as professor of trombone, director of jazz studies, director of music technology and as Associate Dean. In January 2006 Tom accepted a position as Dean of Continuing Education at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, where he now makes his home.

In addition to a long career in education, Tom has worked extensively as a trombonist, arranger, and conductor. His musical arrangements have been widely performed, and as a conductor he has worked with many notable jazz musicians. While serving as music director for the Oklahoma Hall of Fame awards show he worked with Steve Allen, Vince Gill, Reba McEntire and many others. He was the recipient of an Angel Award by Excellence in Media for three consecutive years.

Walker has also performed and recorded with the renowned University of North Texas One O'Clock Jazz Lab Band as well as the 10-member jazz trombone ensemble, Spiritual to the Bone that has recorded five CD's and toured the U.S., Europe, and Australia.

An active Salvationist, Tom is a member of The Salvation Army St. Louis Gateway Citadel Corps band and teaches the adult Sunday school class. Most important, he is the proud father of three (Cameron, Collin, & Brynn), father-in-law to two (Sarah & Mike), and "Pop" to one magnificent grandson.

BEACH BIBLE STUDY LEADER

Lieutenant Stephen Mayes

Born and raised in Northern Kentucky, Lieutenant Stephen Mayes met Jesus Christ (and The Salvation Army) through the ministry of Camp SWONEKY in Oregonia, Ohio. After more than 20 summers at camp ,Stephen began full-time time ministry at the Dayton Central Corps as a youth outreach specialist. In 2009 he entered the School for Officer Training and received his commission in 2011. In his third appointment Stephen serves as the Corps Officer of the Stapleton Corps in Staten Island, NYC. Three of his most favorite things are: the UK Wildcats, peanut butter ice cream and the beach.

CROSSFIRE BRASS

Army brass banding has been around as long as the Camp Meetings, and Crossfire Brass, with Bandmaster Ronald Waiksnoris as leader, continues that tradition. The band will support worship at the Tuesday night Camp Meeting, is the featured group at the Friday night Praise Gathering at the OOB Pier, and will also support the Sunday worship service at the corps.

Crossfire Brass rehearsals are Monday-Friday at 8:30 AM in the Pavilion and are open to all. Bring your instruments!

POINT OF GRACE

Turn on your TV or radio and you'll find no shortage of next-big-things and overnight successes. But in the midst of all of that noise, you may find yourself craving something more. Something authentic, something familiar, yet fresh.

Look no further. The women of Point of Grace are celebrating 20 years together, and with this celebration they offer A Thousand Little Things, their 12th record. Brimming with the beautiful harmonies, encouraging lyrics, and graceful melodies that Shelley Breen, Denise Jones, and Leigh Cappillino are known for, A Thousand Little Things reminds us to be mindful of the multitude of blessings God has given us. And what the world needs now, more than ever, is to remember how important gratitude is, each and every day.

You may ask yourself how a band that has already achieved such monumental success—27 #1 songs, 13 Dove awards, two GRAMMY nominations, career album sales in excess of 7 million with multiple Platinum and Gold certifications, and one of the top 10 best-selling artists in the history of Contemporary Christian Music—presses on? It's quite simple: They love what they do, and they love sharing it with their fans.

They are moms, wives, and artists; and, like every working woman, they're thankful for the fullness in their lives, yet striving to find balance. A strong work ethic, fostered through years of touring, recording and writing, drives these three women to keep making music to share with their listeners.

Know the Secret PIER MINISTRY

Since 1885, OOB has a place of holy happenings, where the Gospel has been proclaimed and countless lives have been changed. The Salvation Army continues in that tradition bringing creativity and innovation to authentic Christian witness.

Concerning the Gospel, the area surrounding OOB is one of the most unreached parts of the United States. It is our prayer that this year's 2015 P.I.E.R. ministry brings many people to Christ.

Phil Keaggy

Saturday, July 25 @ 7:00 PM

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK

Leadership Summit July 26 – 31

THE PATH

LEAD 2015 will be an opportunity for current or prospective leaders in their corps to worship, receive specialized training, and participate in engaging workshops. These workshops will challenge, inspire and equip them in 4 main ministry areas: Discipleship, Mission, Leadership, and Youth. This year's theme for LEAD is 'The Path' and will be an immersive week-long experience in which we will explore a number of Christian Spiritual Disciplines that will prepare any Salvationist to go deeper into their faith and expand the Kingdom of God in new ways in their communities.
